

Click to verify

Christmas gift ideas classroom

This post may contain affiliate links. Read the full disclosure Christmas class gift ideas for students are a special memento in the place of a traditional Christmas card, plus kids love getting gifts! Who am I kidding! We all love getting gifts! With so much time spent together over the school year, it can be fun to make a little something special for those who shared their experience over the school year. Homemade gift ideas are great for this. Thankfully there are many easy handmade end of year class gifts for students. Many of these class gifts can be made with help from your kids too! Or for teachers to make with their class as a fun end of year Christmas craft for kids. The end of the school year comes with both joy and sadness, as the students are moving towards another year of learning and opportunity. It's also a time for goodbyes and the end of a journey. These student gift ideas are also a great option as class presents from teachers or instructors too. For more baked treat ideas, check out these candy cane recipe ideas too. Find more gift ideas for all occasions and ages There is something sentimental and sweet about handmade gifts for classmates and the excitement kids get to hand out something they helped you make. It does not need to be anything fancy or difficult. Some years we do a fun DIY gift for classmates. Other years, the kids hand out a Christmas card with a candy cane! A simple gift for friends brings a whole lot of joy! Here is a mammoth list of end-of-school class gifts and a few that would work during other times of the year too, so you can get your DIY into gear and have a bit of fun! They include thoughtful gift ideas, cute ideas, practical gift ideas and holiday gifts kids can make in class. These are super cute and easy end of year class gifts to put together as a yummy treat for each of the kids in the class. This is great DIY gift for Christmas time or during winter, but if even if you have a summer Christmas as we do in Australia, this Snowman hot chocolate is a fun festive gift idea for kids. You could actually decorate snowman cups and include anything you like. It does not have to be hot chocolate. It could be candy, craft supplies, gourmet popcorn, a handwritten note or anything else that comes to mind. These festive pom pom Christmas bauble ornaments take less than 2 minutes each to make and look fantastic hanging on the tree. For an extra touch, you could add each child's name too. One of the easiest DIY class gift ideas is to create a simple, yet beautiful salt dough ornament for kids to decorate their family Christmas tree with. These ones are decorated using rubber stamps and twine. These photo Christmas cards with candy canes are a super easy and fun alternative to a novelty Christmas card. Make them with your kids to give out to their friends. They will love the fact they get to take silly photos to give to their friends. These are perfect small gift ideas for classmates, and very cheap, especially if you can print at home! Kids love bath time so why not make it extra fun by giving them each a festive scented bath bomb to take home. They will smell good enough to eat afterwards! These are so cute! Gift one to two gingerbread bath bombs wrapped in cellophane and tied with a ribbon. These easy present ideas are quick to make. Something for the tree is a special touch for an end of year Christmas gift and these fabric tree ornaments are a great way to use up old fabric scraps too if you have a lot already on hand. For those of us who don't live in a place where it snows, these pom pom snowball kits are sure to be hilarious fun for school kids to play together or to take home and play with siblings. This is a cute gift idea that is certainly unique! Make each child in the class a handmade Christmas cracker as a fun gift they can take home to pop with family or together in class. This is a really easy craft project that the kids can make for their friends and you can fill them with anything that will fit inside. A handmade card is a special item to receive and also a very easy-to-make and budget-friendly option for class gifts if you are looking to keep it simple yet personal. Plus your kids will get extra writing practice by adding a Christmas message to each card for their friends. This reindeer hot chocolate is another cute hot chocolate treat idea. We all love Rudolf so this is an adorable sweet treat class gift idea from teachers or classmates. This is the cutest! What a cool idea to quickly turn a basic lip balm into a festive gift! Everyone needs hydrated lips... boys and girls! And this will have all the kids eager to use their fun new candy cane lip balm to ward off dry lips! Kids love slime! These slime jars are an activity your kids can help with and a really cool gift for classmates too! You can use smaller jars or containers for your gifts to keep it budget-friendly or collect and recycle jars throughout the year. Let's face it, you (or your child) will be the coolest person around when you're handing out slime gifts! You can use any of these easy slime recipes too. These cookie stack ornaments are easy to make, fun to give and yummy to eat! All you need is a set of star cookie cutters and your favourite Christmas sugar cookie recipe. Have the kids help you create a beautiful paper star ornament for each of their school friends. This paper Christmas decoration looks lovely hanging on display. Kids love small toys to encourage their imagination and these clay miniatures were super fun to create with kids during the school holidays. You can make tiny foods like ours for pretend play. Or go with something Christmas-themed for end of year gifts, like a little clay Christmas tree or flat Christmas shapes. Try adding a string to turn them into mini Christmas tree decorations! Handmade bird feeders are a thoughtful gift idea for kids. Learning about nature is a great experience for kids and this gift is going to delight them when they see birds coming in to nibble on their functional gift. The best thing about this gift is that it encourages kids to get outdoors and be kind to nature too. This is another project we did during school holidays recently and my kids have since made a few different yarn bracelet colours for themselves. My eldest daughter has made a different coloured friendship bracelet for each of her school friends too, so it's a great gift for classmates at the end of year or for a special occasion. Check out the video tutorial here. Salt dough is a popular option for Christmas time, making ornaments for your own tree. It can also be a perfect and inexpensive class gift idea for your kids to help with. How super cool do these sparkly glitter ornaments look! These Rudolph tealight ornament gifts are going to be a winner with school kids because of the flashing Rudolph nose! So creative and super easy to make together with your child. Big kids would be able to do this on their own. Sometimes handmade ornaments look a little bit out of place on the tree, however, this snow globe bauble is so pretty that it will definitely look like it belongs. Even the parents are going to love their school kids bringing one of these home for the tree at the end of the year. This would make a really beautiful class craft project too for teachers. A gift that brings the scent of the festive season to your home is sure to be a popular one! These are no-bake spice ornaments which makes them kid-friendly for children's craft activities. These pencil topper messages are an extremely budget-friendly gift idea for classmates. Perfect if you don't want to spend, but want to give the kids a burst of joy with this simple act of kindness. These also make great Valentine gifts for kids! For special DIY class Christmas gifts, these handmade snowglobes are simple and relatively affordable to make. Add a cute Christmas figurine and kids will love watching their little globe spin. Make your own shrinky disk keyrings for class friends with this easy tutorial. They are a great idea for hanging on school bags for a cool little added personality and thoughtfulness. Gift hydrated lips in cute snowflake lip balm pots with a simple DIY pamper gift for kids to gift. These would make a wonderful gift for older kids as a practical school gift with a handmade touch. If you already have some wooden beads on hand, this is a perfect project! If not, you can usually get them pretty cheap at the local discount store for the kids to create some cute beaded decorations. These are inexpensive gift ideas that are easy to make. Give personalised homemade gifts for classmates with these beaded bracelets. Add each class members name to a bracelet for a fun keepsake they can wear. This is an inexpensive Christmas gift idea for classmates since you can get bulk colourful and alphabet bead sets. For an affordable and simple DIY class Christmas gift idea, make each child a paper photo frame. This is so easy that kids can do it themselves with minimal help from you. If you have permission from the teacher, perhaps you can add a photo of the class to each one as a special keepsake. They would make very thoughtful gifts for the whole class. This DIY Snowman kit has to be one of the cutest gifts for classmates who live in places where it typically snows at Christmas. These cute clay snowman features make quick work of giving their snowman some personality. How cute are these Red Ted Art Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse ornaments made from paper? The tutorial includes a free printable to make your own. These cinnamon stick Christmas tree ornaments are beautiful, simple to make, even for kids and will make everyone's home smell deliciously festive. How cute are these little yarn wreath ornaments? Best of all, they are quite easy to make and will be a fun craft project for the kids to make for their friends at school before the end of year. These pasta tree ornaments are a great toddler or preschool craft that can be gifted to kindergarten and preschool classmates. While this is an Easter class gift idea to make, you can just as easily use this tutorial to create a Christmas shaped crayon gift instead. This is a fun way of upcycling broken crayons too. They make great gifts for younger kids while being a clever way to repurpose those tiny pieces of broken crayon. These hot chocolate spoons are a delicious 'edible' gift that kids can put together for their classmates or teachers to enjoy over the festive season. These cookie cutter clay ornaments are a cute DIY gift that is easy for kids to make and personalise. I love the idea of adding the year or class to them. These DIY Christmas soaps are a lovely gift for kids to give to the students in their class that is practical and a little fun for wash up time. With all these creative ideas, you are sure to find the perfect class Christmas gifts to make with your kids for their classmates. This is a special way to kick off the Christmas cheer as the school year comes to an end. These are also great ideas for teachers, looking for easy classroom crafts to make with their students or to gift to them. There is sure to be something perfect in this collection too! Do you have any favourite class gift ideas for students that you have helped your kids make their friends? Tell us about it in the comments! Inspired? Pin It Are you looking for some Christmas Classroom goodie bag ideas? If so, then this post is for you. I'll show you some fun, easy and inexpensive ideas to give your students a little something to help spread that holiday cheer this Christmas season. This post may contain affiliate links. This means that if you make a purchase using my link, I make a small commission – at no cost to you. Read the full disclosure here. Christmas Classroom Goodie Bag Ideas Your first decision for your class goodie bags is what to use as your bag or container. Here are a few ideas. Add DIY Christmas Decorations to Simple Brown Paper Bags Purchase a Bulk Pack of Christmas Gift Bags Use Clear Bags with Twist Ties or Ribbon Check out the Dollar Store for Unique Containers Use Christmas Poms to Hold all the Holiday Goodies In this next section we'll explore all of these options so you can find what works best for you. DIY Paper Bag for Goody Bag Creating your own DIY classroom goodie bags with brown paper bags is a unique and cost-effective option perfect for the crafty teacher. One idea is to create bags that look like reindeer or Santa. You can also decorate bags with bows and ribbons for a festive look. Check out some more ideas below and then hit up your local craft store to create DIY bags. 1 | Rudolph Paper Bags Image Source | greenangelco Grab your hot glue gun, some googly eyes, red pom poms and candy canes and you can create these adorable Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer goodie bags. 2 | Bags with DIY Gift Tags Image Source | misslawless.mn This idea is a little simpler but still very festive. Just get a bunch of brown paper bags and add a bow and a tag for a festive touch. These adorable tags say a little bit for a deer student, with a picture of a reindeer. Christmas Gift Bag If you're looking for some Christmas goody bag ideas that are fast and easy, then a classic Christmas gift bag is an excellent choice. You can find festive bags with cute designs featuring Santa, snowflakes, or your favorite holiday characters. If you're having a holiday party before winter break you can choose bags that go with your party theme. Hit up the Dollar Tree or Amazon for a large pack. Fill these bags with goodies like small snacks, Christmas bookmarks, and craft supplies. Check out some of my favorite packs of Christmas gift bags that you can get on Amazon. 3 | Paper Christmas Gift Bags Craft Paper Bag Pack | Find them Here This pack from Amazon comes with 24 bags w various holiday designs like Santa, polar bears, snowflakes and reindeer. 4 | Small Christmas Bags Festive Christmas Bags | Find them Here In this pack you get 30 bags and tissue paper for each. I love the bright colorful patterns that would be perfect for the holiday season! Clear Bag Using clear bags allows the students to easily see the assorted treats and prizes inside. Fill these bags with colorful items such as Christmas favors, stickers, candy and slime. Tie the bags with a cute ribbon, and you're ready to go! Check out some inspiration below and find out where to get some clear Christmas bags. 5 | Clear Goodie Bag Christmas Classroom Bag | Find it Here This is a kit that you can get on Etsy. Each kit includes: 2 small Play-Dohs Pom poms A Holiday Cookie Cutter A Cute Christmas Themed Gift Tag 6 | Clear Christmas Bags Kit of Clear Christmas Bags | Find Them Here This kit is available on Amazon, and you get 144 clear bags with different holiday patterns on them. It also includes the twist ties. You can find this kit here. Creative Packaging for Christmas Classroom Goodie Bag Think outside the box when it comes to packaging your classroom goodie bags! Turn ordinary items like small mason jars, tin cans, or even socks into creative containers for gifts. Fill them with Christmas party favors and treats, and watch the kids' faces light up with joy. Check out some more unique packaging ideas from creative teachers below. 7 | Grinch Hot Cocoa Grinch Hot Chocolate | Find it Here This would be a fun idea to send home with students to they could make their own Grinch Hot Cocoa! This one is organic. 8 | Personalized Dollar Tree Containers Image Source | dungeeskinders This teacher got these cute cups from the Dollar Tree and then personalized them with her students' names. You can do this with letter stickers or a Cricut. 9 | Clear Snowman Cups Snowman Cups | Find Them Here I found these cute snowman cups on Amazon, and I thought they would make really cute containers for some Christmas goodies for your students. You get a pack of 100 and they come with cute straws too. You could split a pack with your teacher besties! Printable Tags for Christmas Goodie Bags Adding a personalized touch to your goodie bags is easy with printable tags. Download festive designs featuring holiday themes and messages, print them out, and attach the tags to your bags. If you want to create your own printable tags check out some ideas below. 10 | Gift Tags for Pop-It Key Chains Here's a fun idea. You can get a package of holiday pop its from Amazon. Then add a label that says, "Ho! Ho! Ho! Holiday is Poppin'." 11 | Christmas Treat Bag Toppers Reindeer Bag Topper | Find Them Here These bag tags are printable and editable. You just download print and attach to your classroom treat bag. 12 | Printable Bag Labels Image Source | thatunteacher If you're looking for a better way to package your treats that is quick and inexpensive then copy this idea. This teacher created these printable tags and stapled them to Ziploc sandwich bags for an easy small Christmas goodie bag for students. Wrapped Gifts If you prefer a more traditional approach, consider individually wrapping small gifts like coloring books, craft kits, or mini candy canes. Use festive wrapping paper or tissue paper to create a lovely presentation that the kids will enjoy unwrapping. 13 | Christmas Gifts for Students Image Source | sweetsnauferistics Sometimes it's all about the presentation, right? I love how this first grade teacher displays her Christmas goodie bags! Gift Tags Don't forget to add gift tags to your goodie bags or wrapped gifts! Choose from pre-made designs or create custom tags with the children's names on them to make them feel special. These little touches can elevate your classroom goodie bags, making this holiday season memorable for everyone involved. Get inspired by some creative gift tag ideas below. 14 | Gift Tag for Candy Cane Pen Candy Cane Pen with Tag | Find it Here A candy cane pen with a cute tag would be a great addition to your classroom treat bag. 15 | Gift Tags for Straws Straw Printable Tags | Find them Here Add a festive gift tag to Christmas straws for the perfect classroom small gift. Ideas to Put in Classroom Goodie Bags So, I gave you some ideas for packaging and tagging your holiday gift bags. Now let's check out some ideas of what to actually put into those goodie bags. Christmas Party Favors in Bags Select holiday-themed toys and trinkets such as Christmas squishies, sticker sheets, and mini Play-Doh containers. These small items will delight your students and keep them entertained. Check out the party section of the Dollar Tree for a ton of options or of course Amazon. Below you can see some of my top picks from Amazon. 16 | Christmas Party Favor Bag Bulk Pack Christmas Party Favors | Find them Here This Christmas party favor pack comes everything you need to assemble your own to give to your students. It includes Christmas pencils, erasers, slap bracelets, cards and treat bags. 17 | Christmas Squishies Christmas Squishies | Find Them Here Would your students love a cute Christmas squishy in their bag? This pack comes with an assortment of 24. 18 | Bulk Christmas Party Pack Christmas Party Bulk Package | Find it Here If you want to add a holiday party favor or two or three to your Christmas goody bags this pack has you covered. This is a huge package with 758 small items that you could probably use for a few years. It includes pencils, erasers, rulers, stamps, minin notebooks, stickers and more. Cute Ideas for Christmas Goodie Bags Add a touch of cuteness to your goodie bags with items like adorable yetis skiing on mini candy canes, cute gingerbread cookies on playdoh, or candy disguised as Rudolph. Your students will love these adorable additions to their goodie bags. Check out all of these ideas below. 19 | Christmas Yeti Printable Christmas Yeti | Find it Here This is a printable that you can get on Etsy. You can edit it to add your name and then print off as many as you like. Just add the candy canes for an adorable addition to your student treat bags. 20 | Personalized Play-Doh Containers Gingerbread Themed Play-Doh | Find it Here You can personalize these cute little Play-Doh containers for your students as a perfect addition to their holiday goodie bags! 21 | Rudolph Sweet Treats Image Source | justacaracroll If you're looking for an inexpensive and simple addition to Christmas goodie bags how about disguising their favorite treats as Rudolph. All you need is brown construction paper, a hot glue gun, pom-poms and googly eyes. Holiday Treats Satisfy your students' sweet tooth with some tasty holiday treats like individual-sized packets of cookies, small chocolate bars, and miniature gingerbread men. Just remember to take allergies and dietary restrictions into consideration. Check out some holiday treat inspiration below. 22 | Rudolph Lollipops Reindeer Printables | Find Them Here This Rudolph is an editable, printable download from Etsy. You can customize with your name and add your own lollipops for an easy treat that is perfect for the holiday season. 23 | Mrs. Clause Treat Bag Donut Bag Mrs. Clause | Find it Here How adorable are these Mrs. Clause treat bags? You download these free printables and print them off and use a mini popper to make a mini popper for a fun way to make each student smile when they open their treat bags. Fun Activity for Kids Are you looking for some Christmas goodie bag ideas that don't involve candy or toys? Incorporate a fun and engaging activity such as a holiday-themed coloring sheet, puzzle, or word search into your goodie bags. This will give your students something enjoyable to do during downtime at school or at home. Check out some of my favorite ideas for activities to include in your Christmas goodie bags below. 24 | Holiday Building Blocks Image Source | palmtreesandpampers This teacher snagged these building block holiday kits from Target and then added her own cute gift tags for students. You can also find building block packs from Amazon here. 25 | Christmas Coloring Sheets Find them Here | Christmas Coloring Sheets Looking for Christmas classroom goodie bag ideas that don't involve treats or toys? How about sending each student home with a little Christmas themed coloring sheet and a couple of crayons? 26 | Holiday Play-Doh Activity Image Source | onesharpbunch This teacher sent each student home with a plastic bag that contained a kit for them to create their own snowman, gingerbread man or Christmas tree while at home. Each kit had colored Play-Doh, beads, pom poms, pipe cleaners, and the design mat. Funny Christmas Treat Bag Ideas Inject some humor into your goodie bags with items like silly Christmas-themed socks, joke books, funny temporary tattoos or even snowman poop (mini marshmallows). Your students will appreciate a light-hearted addition to their loot bags. Check out some more ideas for funny goodie bag items below. 27 | Funny Treat Bags Christmas Bag Toppers | Find Them Here Would your students get a kick out of getting a bag of elf pillows, reindeer noses or even snowman poop in their holiday treat bags? This kit includes the bag toppers and you add your own treats. This is the perfect way to add a fun touch to your Christmas goodie treat bags. 28 | Snowman Poop Bag Topper | Find it Here You can instantly download this snowman poop gift tag and bag topper and just add the mini marshmallows. This would pair nicely with a package of hot cocoa for your students. 29 | Snowman Soup Image Source | favortags You could also create your own Snowman Soup Bag Bulk Pack Christmas Party Favors | Find them Here This Christmas party favor pack comes everything you need to assemble your own to give to your students. It includes Christmas pencils, erasers, slap bracelets, cards and treat bags. 30 | Snowman Play-Doh Kit Here's a great way to add some Christmas cheer to your goodie bags. These Play-Doh snowman jars have a customizable label on top that says, "Do you want to build a snowman?" Ideas for Christmas Goodie Bags for Teachers If you want to prepare something for your teacher friends or child's teachers, I have some ideas for you! Show your appreciation with a Christmas-themed goodie bag that includes items like tea bags, scented candles and treats. Teachers deserve some holiday cheer this time of year too! Check out some more ideas below for teacher goodie bags. 47 | Teacher Gift Card Holder Gift Card Holder | Find it Here We know teacher's love gift cards. Here's a fun way to take a simple Starbucks gift card up a notch. 48 | Smells Like Christmas Break Candy Christmas Teacher Candle | Find it Here Do you know a teacher that needs this candle? 49 | Chill Pills for Teachers Image Source | mrspresleytley You could make your teacher friends their own pack of chill pills packed with their favorite candy. Add a label that says, "In the event of stress caused by reports, children, adults or technology, take 1-2 pills by mouth." 50 | Teacher Gift Box Gift Box for Teachers | Find it Here Here's an idea for a pretty box that you can add your own goodies to like homemade Christmas cookies. Frequently Asked Questions What items can I include in a student goodie bag for the holidays? You can include various small and budget-friendly items in a student goodie bag for the holidays. Some great options are Christmas stickers, mini Play-Doh containers, festive squishies, mini candy canes, and Christmas-themed pencils or pens. You may also consider including small puzzle toys or seasonal erasers to add some educational value. What are some age-appropriate treats for toddler Christmas goodie bags? For toddler Christmas goodie bags, it's essential to choose age-appropriate, safe, and fun treats. Some options can be smash-up toys, wooden holiday-themed puzzles, washable crayons, Christmas-themed board books, or soft play balls. Any treats included should be large enough to avoid choking hazards. What are some creative holiday treat bag ideas for classrooms? To make your holiday treat bags stand out, you can choose pre-printed holiday goodie bags or design custom paper or plastic gift bags with festive images and messages. How can I make my holiday goodie bags stand out? To make your holiday party goodie bags stand out, try personalizing them with unique touches. Tie them up with festive ribbons or twine or use gift tags that can double as Christmas tree ornaments. You can also use recyclable materials, like brown paper bags with personalized Christmas-themed stamps or drawings. This adds an eco-friendly touch to each loot bag. What are some affordable yet impressive ideas for coworker Christmas goodie bags? Affordable yet impressive ideas for coworker Christmas goodie bags include gourmet tea or coffee samples, mini candles, candy canes with a custom message attached, or DIY hot chocolate mix in individual mason jars. You can also consider making delightful treats like cookies or fudge to show your appreciation. Where can I find unique items for Christmas classroom goodie bags? You can find unique items for Christmas classroom goodie bags your local craft store, The Dollar Store, Amazon or Etsy. Browse for discounts and seasonal offers to find unique, high-quality items at affordable prices. Make sure to shop ahead of time to avoid the last-minute rush and to allow for personalization and customization when needed. Pinterest Christmas Classroom Goodie Bag Ideas Feel free to save your favorite ideas from this post to your Pinterest boards. To do that just click on the Picture and then the P and choose your board. I hope you have found the perfect Christmas classroom goodie bag ideas to give to your students this holiday season and maybe some idea for your teacher bestie too. If you liked this post, please give it a share! Here are some more posts you may like... 31 Gift Ideas for Students & Classroom Stocking Stuffers 101 Creative Christmas Classroom Door Decorations 63 Fun and Easy Classroom Christmas Bulletin Board Decorations 45 Creative Elf on the Shelf Classroom Ideas 8 Fun Christmas Classroom Ideas To Try This Year 75 Classroom Christmas Decoration Ideas for a Festive Class Do you like to keep inexpensive gift ideas for students on hand to celebrate holidays, birthdays, or special accomplishments? Do you like to have small rewards to serve as incentives for good behavior or good work? Then look no further! This gift list is full of fun, affordable little things your students will flip over. (Note: Prices listed are current as of this writing.) FREE PRINTABLES These printable gift tags are perfect for attaching to simple and inexpensive student gifts to make them extra special. Check out examples below for fun and creative ways to use them. Get Free Printable Gift Tags Amazon Not only do these humorous bookmarks look good, they smell good too! Buy them: Scented Bookmarks Amazon Your students will be scrambling to do their best work to earn one of these super-fun pens. Buy them: Rainbow Fluffy Pens Amazon Wow, these pens pack a punch! They're gel, they glitter, and best of all, they're fruit-scented. Buy them: Scented Glitter Gel Pens Amazon Put together mixed sets of sheets of these colorful rainbow origami papers in zipper bags and add them to your treasure box. Purchase includes a free e-book tutorial for creating all kinds of shapes. Buy them: Origami Paper Amazon These colorful neon tubes can be formed into bracelets, necklaces, tiaras, etc. Plus, they glow in the dark! Buy them: Glow Stick Bracelets Amazon These adorable wood magnets make a great DIY paint project. Buy them: Wooden Magnets Oriental Trading Give your students their own little lovin' to read with and take care of. Buy them: Mini Stuffed Animals Amazon Want to encourage your students to write? Gift them these invisible-ink pens with built-in black light, and they'll be motivated to compose secret messages. Buy them: Invisible-Ink Pens Oriental Trading Give each of your students a fun card game to pass the time at home over a holiday break. This set of 24 decks comes with an assortment of games, including Old Maid, Go Fish, and Monster Hearts. Buy them: Boredom Buster Card Games Amazon Love 'em or not, Pop-Its are still the reigning king of fidget toys. You can grab a pack of 30 on Amazon for less than a buck apiece. Buy them: Pop Fidget Key Chains Amazon How about a fidget toy that doubles as a fashion accessory? Your students will love these push-pop bracelets, and you'll love that these inexpensive gifts for students are only about 50 cents apiece. Buy them: Pop Fidget Bracelets Amazon These adorable craft sets come in a variety pack of 24, featuring four different themes: Secret Clubhouse, Unicorn House, Butterfly House, and Space Center. Buy them: Magic Scratch Notes Amazon Hand sanitizer is a must-have, so give your students a whimsical way to carry theirs around. Grab a set of these refillable bottles for a fun and useful gift for students. Buy them: Refillable Hand Sanitizer Bottles Amazon These bright-hued lanyards include a safety breakaway mechanism, so they're even safe for younger kids. It's the perfect way for them to wear their school ID. Buy them: Colorful Lanyards Amazon This fun little game kit comes with the board and all the pieces in their own little storage bag. All for less than $1 per game! Buy them: Tic-Tac-Toe Amazon Bubbles are another one of those little treats that will make any kid's day. These are a fun little pocket-sized version. Buy them: Bubble Wands Dollar Tree These are so fun to use in the classroom! Give them to each student so they can show their appreciation during presentations or book reports. Buy them: Hand Clappers Amazon One of the best things about these cute sticker pages is that you can pop them in the mail with a card or note. Buy them: Make-a-Face Sticker Sheets Dollar Tree What's not to love about puffy stickers? Pick a theme and off you go! Buy them: Puffy Sticker Sheets Amazon These laptop stickers are fun inexpensive gift ideas for students. This set of 250 motivational stickers costs less than $15. Buy them: Motivational Laptop Stickers Dollar Tree Sometimes it surprises adults how much fun kids have playing with classic toys. These light-up toys add some extra excitement to an old-school toy. Buy them: Light-Up Toys Amazon These adorable gel ink pens are less than a dollar each when you buy a set of 24. Buy them: Cartoon Gel Ink Pens Oriental Trading Help your students build fine motor and problem-solving skills with these adorable mini puzzles that feature an assortment of wild animals. They cost less than a dollar each. Buy them: Wildlife Mini Puzzles Amazon Amazon has lots of terrific children's e-book options for a dollar or two each, and they make it easy to send a selection to a large group. Buy them: E-Books We Are Teachers These printable (and mailable!) bookmarks are FREE, so all you need is a printer and some card stock. Get them: Printable Bookmarks Amazon Puzzle books will keep kids entertained (and thinking) when they have some free time. Buy them: Puzzle Books We Are Teachers Sometimes all you need is a reminder that you're special to make the day better. Get them: Motivational Cards We Are Teachers If you're looking for an even more inexpensive way to spread kindness, you'll love these free printable posters! Get them: Printable Kindness Posters Amazon These animal bookmarks are cute and a real bargain! You can get 30 animal bookmarks for a great price. Buy them: Animal Bookmarks Amazon Yes, more bookmarks! Such a good gift idea and so useful. Buy them: Emoji Bookmarks Etsy Looking for inexpensive gift ideas for students who love to read? These cute buttons have clever slogans that any bibliophile will appreciate. Buy them: Book Love Pins Amazon These fun bracelets are a fad that never gets old! Just be sure to set down some guidelines for appropriate use in the classroom. Buy them: Slap Bracelets We Are Teachers Have you seen our calm-down jars? These are such a good experiment, and they can also make a good gift for students. You can use miniature jars to save money. Buy the supplies: Miniature Jars at Amazon Amazon You can find lots of options for stress balls on Amazon, and these globes are some of our favorites. Buy them: Globe Stress Balls Amazon Here's another great playground toy that makes a perfect student gift. Buy them: Rubber Flying Discs Super Mom Hacks DIY Fidget toys are inexpensive gift ideas that are always a hit with students. Plus, they're a cinch to create when you're binge-watching your favorite show. Learn more: DIY Fidget Toy Buy them: Pony Beads at Amazon We Are Teachers Grab our free printable game boards and use them to create personalized games for your students. Pair them with some colorful dice and you're ready to gift! Get them: Printable Game Boards Buy them: Colorful Dice at Amazon Dollar Tree Younger kids especially love to color pretty pictures. Snag these adorable coloring books (only $1.25 for 112 pages!) and hand out pages as rewards. Or keep a supply of books on hand for special birthday gifts. Buy them: Jumbo Coloring Books Amazon Kids can sketch whatever strikes their fancy, then swipe to erase with these mini doodle pads. Best of all, they're less than a couple of bucks each when you buy in bulk. Buy them: Doodle Pads Amazon Inspire future paleontologists in your class with these super-fun faux dinosaur eggs. The set even comes with excavating picks and species guides. Divvy up the set and package each egg plus supplies for 12 special rewards. Buy them: Dinosaur Eggs Amazon Whether you send these home for families to try or use them as an in-class science experiment, they're sure to be tons of fun. Buy them: DIY Bouncy Balls Amazon Gratitude truly is the secret to a happy life. Train your students to develop the habit by giving them a place to jot their happy thoughts and fun memories on a consistent basis. Buy them: Gratitude Journals Amazon Everybody loves sticky notes! Give kids their own cute pads to use whenever they want to send a cheery message to a friend. Buy them: Inspirational Sticky Notes Amazon These are so popular with kids of all ages. Your students will love choosing one, or you can choose it for them along with a special note. Consider using them as desk pets too! Buy them: Squishies Amazon What's old is new again with these retractable pens with six colors of ink. They make great gifts, and they're affordable when you buy in bulk. Buy them: Colorful Retractable Pens Amazon Yum! These adorable little erasers in the shape of different foods will inspire your students to start a collection of their own. Consider using them in conjunction with your desk pets as well. Buy them: Food Erasers Amazon What a great way to recycle old, broken crayons. Grab this mold and make some yourself! Buy them: Building-Brick Mold Amazon These punch balloons are a fun way for kids to work off some of their energy after sitting at a desk for hours each day. Buy them: Punch Balloons Amazon Choose your inexpensive gift ideas for students with learning in mind. These inflatable globes are fun to throw around but can be used for reference and exploration too. Buy them: Inflatable Globes Amazon Have you met a kid yet who doesn't love LEGO? These mini building block kits are basically the same thing, but you can get 12 of them for less than a couple of dollars apiece. Buy them: Mini Building Block Kits Amazon Colorful mini notepads (especially these, with fun covers that look like LEGO bricks) make a practical, simple gift for kids of all ages. Buy them: Mini Building Block Notepads Amazon These flexible pencils will wow your students for less than a quarter each. They'll get a kick out of bending them into fun shapes. Buy them: Bendable Pencils Amazon Kids just love playing with these plastic bendy tubes. And best of all, you can get them for just about a dollar apiece. Buy them: Plastic Bandy Tubes Amazon Challenge your students to solve this pencil-sized Rubik's Cube-style puzzle. They'll have fun while building dexterity and problem-solving skills. Buy them: Puzzle Cubes Amazon There's something irresistible about spring toys. Pick up a bulk pack for pennies each. Buy them: Mini Rainbow Springs Amazon The possibilities are endless with these magic speed cubes that students can turn into shapes like snakes, dogs, and more. Buy them: Magic Speed Cubes Amazon Just knowing that their teacher sees them for who they are can make all the difference for some kids. Instead of a tangible gift, why not put your gratitude into words? Buy them: Thank-You Cards Oriental Trading OK, even we would like to have a mini water-ball yo-yo. Fun for fidgeting, the playground, and collecting. Buy them: Water Ball Yo-Yos Amazon These quiet fidget toys are great distractions for students to keep their hands busy while focusing on their work. Buy them: Multicolored Fidgets Amazon Another version of the Pop-It Fidget. These colorful bumpy balls are fun to toss around and also to fidget with when your student needs to get some energy out. Buy them: Pop-It Fidget Balls Amazon These organic bath bombs come with a little surprise inside—a sea creature! Buy them: Bath Bombs Domestic Superhero Who doesn't love play dough? Cook up a few batches of this all-natural version and divvy up into sets to share as prizes for your students. Get the recipe: Homemade Play Dough Amazon Tiny stampers are fun for students to use to mark answers correct, create patterns and pictures, or give each other in autograph books. Buy them: Mini Stampers Amazon These silly sensory toys are a big hit with kids! Don't they just bring a smile to your face? Buy them: Smiley Stretchy Toys Don't feel like buying store-bought gifts? Make these silly stress balls yourself! Learn how: DIY Stress Balls We Are Teachers Print out these free mask templates and create a little DIY kit for your students. You can also include colored paper and a pack of crayons or markers if you'd like. Get them: Free Mask Templates Allie Ogg for We Are Teachers Check out our cool collection of coloring pages and print out a few to assemble mini coloring books for your students. Get them: Coloring Pages