

I'm human

Tags: Grammar, language, negative, preterite, simple past March 23, 2019 March 11, 2018 September 14, 2018 Quality ESL grammar worksheets, quizzes and games - from A to Z - for teachers & learners PAST SIMPLE NEGATIVES 5-Minute English Grammar Lesson + Mini Quiz: When the Past Isn't the Past Use this video in-class to supplement your lesson. Alternatively, consider sending the video link to your learners for a "flipped" class or for remote learning. Grammar Quiz Past Simple: Negative Statements 16 multiple-choice questions; with ANSWER KEY and percentage conversion chart Level: Elementary (CEFR A1 to A2) Time: Approx. 15 minutes Download the PDF file by clicking on the goldbutton below! Grammar Worksheet Past Simple: Negatives 10 sentence exercise - write the sentences in their negative forms; with ANSWER KEY and percentage conversion chart Intermediate Level Approximately 15 minutes Download the PDF file by clicking on the goldbutton below! ACTIVITY SUGGESTION Before distributing this handout, write the first sentence on the board ("He went to school yesterday.") and model the exercise for your students. Consider saving time marking papers by having one or two students come to the board to write their answers. Wrap-up by correcting and discussing any mistakes. (Add 5 to 10 minutes.) The Past Simple negative form is used to express that an action did not happen at a specific time in the past. It is formed using the Past Simple structure with negation. Here's how to form and use the Past Simple negative: Subject + did not + base form of the verb Contraction: "Did not" is often contracted to "didn't." Examples I didn't go to the party. This implies that the speaker did not attend the party. She didn't finish her homework. This means she did not complete her homework. They didn't see the movie. This indicates that they did not watch the movie. We didn't visit the museum. This suggests that the visit to the museum did not happen. I didn't call him yesterday. (This sentence indicates that the speaker did not make a phone call to him yesterday.) She didn't arrive on time. (This means that she did not reach her destination at the scheduled time.) They didn't play soccer last weekend. (This shows that playing soccer did not occur last weekend.) We didn't eat dinner together. (This indicates that having dinner together did not happen.) He didn't read the book. (This implies that he did not read the book at all.) The train didn't leave on time. (This means the train did not depart at the scheduled time.) She didn't pass the exam. (This indicates that she did not achieve a passing score on the exam.) I didn't hear the announcement. (This suggests that the speaker did not hear the announcement.) They didn't find the missing keys. (This shows that the keys were not found by them.) He didn't watch TV last night. (This indicates that he did not watch television last night.) The team didn't win the match. (This means the team did not achieve a victory in the match.) She didn't bake the cake. (This indicates that baking the cake did not happen.) I didn't meet her The park They did not catch the bus We did not clean the house He did not write the report She did not complete the project on time I did not understand the question They did not swim in the pool He did not fix the car The Past Simple negative tense is essential for describing actions that did not occur at specific times in the past. Using this tense accurately helps convey the absence of actions or events. Wasn't the structure "was" / "were" + subject + subject complement (noun, adjective, etc)? For instance, Was he nice at the meeting? The "did" + subject + verb in base form structure was used as well. Did you buy the book? Additionally, question word + "was" / "were" + subject and question word + "did" + subject + verb in base form were employed. What was the name of your dog? Where did she go last night? To form negative sentences in simple past, we typically use this structure: Subject + "was" / "were" + "not" + subject complement (adjective, noun, etc). My dog wasn't hungry, for example. Alternatively, Subject + "did" + "not" + verb in base form (+ other words) could be used. My wife didn't use her computer, for instance. To negate the first sentence in each task, write the negations of the verbs in bold into the correct gaps. Both long and short/contracted forms of the auxiliaries can be employed. Tom wrote a letter → did not write a letter or Tom wrote a letter → didn't write a letter. The simple past tense is used to describe events that occurred in the past and are finished, generally occurring at a specific time in the past. It's also used for situations in the past, series of actions in the past happening one after another, and we have narrated 50 sentences (affirmative, negative, and questions) of simple past tense. Simple Past Tense (Examples, Formula, and Exercise) Steve came to my house last week. I went to college three years ago. He ate dinner an hour ago. I slept well last night. I lived in Bangkok for five years (I don't live there anymore). He entered a room, lit a cigarette, and smiled at the guests. The teacher said that the earth moves around the sun. The teacher taught the lesson well. The baby cried in the cradle. She left the town for good. The teacher marked the answer books of students. I threw wood into the water, but it did not sink. We used to take a bath in the tubewell. I used to play the flute. I acted upon your advice. It rained heavily last night. I used to go to the hill station (I no more go there). John entered the hall to attend the party. My father told me that an honest person is always satisfied. I studied Spanish two years ago. Exercise helped him a lot to maintain his health. We went for a walk to enjoy the weather. He did a great favor to me. He devoted himself to biotechnology research. The sailor swam across the river. I traveled to Rome three years ago. They followed her everywhere. He turned his laziness into activity. He whitewashed the house a month ago. I used to live in a village; I shifted to a city a year ago. The moon did not appear yesterday. He did not listen to me. He did not cut the tree. They did not attend the party. You did not respond to my mail. He did not sleep well because he was sick. She did not even bother to answer me. The company did not increase my salary last year. He did not follow the footsteps of his parents. The mason did not leave the work incomplete. Did you reach home safely? Did he demand a fair price for the rabbit? Where did she go? Did you go to the hill station last Sunday? Why did you laugh? Why did you insist? Did you receive your salary yesterday? Did your friend sit in the dark of uncertainty, did you pass that exam last year? The reasons behind your loud outburst still linger. Read on: Verb Tenses Explained Sentences in Simple Past Tense: Positive: He met his wife six years ago. I graduated from university. They watched a movie yesterday. Negative: He didn't meet her. I didn't graduate. They didn't watch a movie. Question: Did he feel sad yesterday? Did she study in the library?

Past negative sentence example. Simple past tense interrogative negative sentence example. What is an example of a past simple interrogative negative sentence. It is an example of using simple past tense in negative sentence. Simple past tense negative sentences examples. What is simple past negative. Negative sentence of simple past tense. Negative sentences simple past.