They are important and how are they best used? If you're assigning this to your students, copy the worksheet to your account and save. Use bell ringers at the beginning of class as a means of engagement, topic/skill review, or a formative assessment. When you're done, hit "Save & Exit!" You can print off your worksheet from the next screen, or you can print it directly from the worksheet. The worksheet is designed to be used in a variety of ways. It will be saved to your account. Bell Ringers To make a bell ringer worksheet, choose a template above! Once you're in the Storyboard Creator, click on each of the elements on the template to change them to fit your needs. Bell ringers are particularly useful for teachers who have classes that change regularly throughout the day, such as middle and high school, but can easily be used at the start of the day.
